"Surviving Healthcare - Practice Management Conference 2008 is Your Lifeline"

You have an opportunity to attend this exciting conference on March 10-11, 2008, at the Tropicana Casino & Resort in Atlantic City. The New Jersey Medical Group Management Association (NJMGMA) again sponsors this annual conference.

You will learn from four nationally known speakers. Bob Vosburgh, founder of 9G Enterprises, speaking on Organizational Excellence; Dr. Deb Walker-Keegan, President of Medical Practice Dimensions, covering Scheduling & No-show Management, and Don't Let the Phones Manage You; Sarah Larch, COO of University Physicians, Inc. at the University of Maryland School of Medicine, helping you to Leave the Office Early: How to do More in Less Time and Feel Good About It; and Steve Bedwell, MD, helping you to Flex Your Prospective Power: Supercharge Your Success.

Complete information about the entire program, speakers, registration, and hotel rooms can be found on the website www.pmc2008.org or by calling Heather Evans, Executive Director of NJMGMA at 609-585-6871.

To receive the discounted room rate of $85 at the Tropicana, call hotel reservations at 800-247-8767 and mention the code MGMA 2008. To get this discounted rate you must make your reservation by February 25, 2008.

Plan NOW to attend this conference. You will gain valuable insight into running your practice more efficiently. You will have the opportunity to visit over 50 vendors in one area during the breaks. SaVit Collection Agency will be at Booth 19. And you can network with other practice administrators and office managers during the two-day conference.
