"RECIPE FOR SUCCESS" – The 2009 Practice Management Conference

You have an opportunity to attend this exciting conference on March 19-20 at BALLY'S Atlantic City. The New Jersey Medical Group Management Association (NJMGMA) is sponsoring this annual conference.

You will learn from four nationally know speakers. Mike Schlappi will kick off the conference with a motivational and inspirational speech. In the afternoon Lisa Goldstein, JD, will provide a Washington update from the view of the national MGMA. Winding up the first day you will hear from Dave Jakielo who will cover business methods for managing a medical practices. Day two will begin with Mark Mayfield, a humorous speaker presenting a high content speech to get you back on track after an evening of relaxation.

During the two days there will be ten breakout sessions for small group discussions with trained professionals in each session. In addition, there are three physician track sessions designed to help managing physicians. These sessions are sponsored by N J Physicians. Check out the Program Agenda & Schedule for details.

Plan NOW to attend this conference. You will gain valuable insight into running your practice more efficiently, and will benefit from networking with other administrators and managers during the conference. You will also have the opportunity during the breaks to visit over 50 vendors specializing in products and services for healthcare practices. SaVit Collection Agency will be at Booth 7. We have a cash economic stimulus package drawing for attendees that register at our booth.
